The principal characters are Ibsen, the high priestess of Kalma, the Hindu God of Love and the temple dancer, two roles which will be impersonated by Misses Mattie Townsend and June Adams. The act is staged in a most beautiful and spectacular way. The special music is composed and directed by Edward Page and two ballets, one of which is the number tell the famous story of Paul and Virginia and Orpheus and Eurydice in drawing pantomime.

The added attraction brings back to the city two former Lyceum favorites, Harry Cornell and Ethel Corley, who need no introduction to Edmonton theater goers. Miss Corley was the leading woman at the Lyceum for some time, and her leaving the house for the vaudeville ranks was regretted by many. To Harry Cornell, who has been a member of the Lyceum for some time, two roles which will be impersonated by Misses Mattie Townsend and June Adams.

PATRONS OF BIJOU TO BE TREATED TO FURTHER NOVELTIES

Manager Hazza Realizes Importance of Constant Change In Running House.

NAIL DRIVING CONTESTS ARE DESERVEDLY POPULAR

Country Store Tuesday Nights Never Fails to Attract Capacity Houses.

It would be an exceptional week indeed at the Bijou theater, that the management of that popular 10-street playhouse did not turn loose some novelty either in the films on the stage. There is such a thing as keeping a house alive. A manager may have ever so good a house, but if he is not always bringing surprises, pleasant innovations that please the public, his motion picture theater will soon become known as one of the largest and ever increasing group of playhouses which had their day and are now being run down.

Every now and then, Manager Hazza of the Bijou theater springs something new and novel on his ever increasing patrons. Film novelties started the ball rolling, and these won a clientele for him that any manager would be proud to see. It is a recent important from the east, and it may be ascertained how popular this is by the number of people who are turned away from the Bijou every Tuesday night because there are no seats for them.

Amateur night every Friday is a time-honored method of securing big patronage, but old as it is, it has been remarkably successful at the Bijou, and surprising as it may seem, some real musical comedy talent has been uncovered in this way.

The ladies' nail driving contest was not considered very seriously at first, but when four women appeared on the stage of the Bijou and gave one of the most interesting and exciting exhibitions of nail driving ever seen outside of a carpenter shop, the nail driving contest added another "speck" to the Bijou wheel of successes. Jealous because the gentle sex performed so well in this contest, the male portion of the audience insisted upon being given a chance, so on the following Friday night a men's nail driving contest was staged with admirable success.

Novelties must be introduced during these days of stiff competition. A good showman knows this, and Manager Hazza has proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that he is a good showman.

David Warfield is so thoroughly enjoying his summer of rest after a long, hard season that he says he has arranged for the future not to play more than 25 weeks a year. The tradition of Joseph Jefferson's "luxurious scheme of life" is thus revived.

George C. Tyler, managing director for the Leblanc company, has been spending several weeks in Sicily with Robert Hichens, the author of "The Garden of Allah."

When Marie Tempest comes to America next season for an announced farewell engagement, she will appear in "The Little Girl," a comedy by Richard Henry Powell that has found much favor in London. She will appear in Boston at one of the Shubert houses.

Klaw and Erlanger Biograph Series Secured by Empress

Photoplays Are Adapted From Some of Dramatic, Comedy and Musical Productions of Last Quarter of a Century—Manager Succeeds in Making Still One More Big Coup.

The management of the Empress theater has made another large sized coup. This is nothing particularly new—making coups but the brand of attractions which will be screened at the Empress during the next 30 or more weeks will make many other motion picture managers sit up and take notice, for the management of the Empress has secured the Klaw and Erlanger Biograph series of photoplays adapted from some of the great dramatic, comedy and musical productions of the last quarter century.

How would it seem to have that delightful couple of a family that was cooped up in a house for seven days because of a smallpox scare acted for the pictures? Edmonton's "Seven Days" on the legitimate stage, but the same theater patrons who saw it played here by a stock company will be astonished to see how well it is adapted to motion picture production.

It was not many years ago that melodrama of the "ten-twenty-three" variety was all the rage. From gallery to pit the villain was hined and here applauded. The chit and the jappers were part and parcel of these thrillers, which had their day and then almost vanished with the onward march of motion pictures. One of the most successful writers of thrillers for the stage was Theodore Kremer, who could turn out a drama in one hour, make it to order while the scenery was being built, and have the reputation of comedy and tragedy to suit both the Judd's appetite of the day.

Of course his delightful slapstick was missing, but none of the precious mannerisms of the original will be lost in transferring the character from the spoken drama to the motion picture screen. In four reels "Lord Chumley" will have a prominent place among the All Star series of feature releases.

Other films in this series will include "Classmates," in which Robert Edson starred successfully two seasons, and which will be the first on the list starting next Wednesday and Thursday; "The Billionaire," "Strongheart," "Woman Against Woman," "Star's Enemy" and "Fine Feathers."

The coalition of Klaw and Erlanger and the Biograph film company, both pioneers in their respective fields is one which will be watched with great interest. Their famous dramas acted by first class motion picture actors—actors who take poor photographs and are selected because their names mean something on the legitimate stage—is the first venture of Klaw and Erlanger into the motion picture field, and their success has been one of the sensations of the American theatrical world, during the last season.

Film makers have struck a new lead. They make a movie of a wedding ceremony with all its attendant entertainment, including a rice throwing, etc. The bride buys a shoe, in fact, after years, whenever she gets lonely she throws the picture on the screen, and dreams it all over again.

When in the autumn Eugene Walters' play of "A Plain Woman" is shown in New York, the chief part will be played by actress actress, Mrs. Charlotte Walker (Mrs. Walter), who originated it in the Philadelphia "trout" in the spring.

In place of Lou Tellegen of pleasant memory, Mrs. Bernhardt now has her leading man, Remond Joub, one of Parry's young men, and most recent actors.

Lillian Colson, character singer, with Merry Minnie Maide, Empire theater, three days starting Monday.

Marjorie Murray as Kitty MacKay, Empire, last half of next week.

THE TANGO IS DEAD—LONG LIVE THE TANGO

New York, Aug. 8.—Not even war scares can completely divert attention from the dancing craze. Dancing masters who are looking forward to next season's styles in fancy steps, declare that the tango is doomed to oblivion. It is claimed that the tango has been dead for some time—killed by freakish exhibitions and by tango "chit" skirts holding the lead over the head, throwing her over the shoulder, clutching her around the neck and all that sort of thing. The contributory causes gave the people the idea that the dance was not respectable. What will be the successor to the tango is a question, but just now the hesitation will seem destined to receive the honor.

HAMMERSTEIN OPENS NEW KIND OF OPERA HOUSE IN NEW YORK

New York, Aug. 8.—Oscar Hammerstein and his new theatrical venture this evening, presenting moving pictures and "snatches of grand opera" at his new house, known as the Great East Side Opera House. Mr. Hammerstein had originally intended to present grand opera, but because of his agreement with the Metropolitan Opera company was prevented from so doing, and has turned to the "snatches" and a few selected grand operas, which will present the singers as individual performers. In addition to the orchestra a large organ has been installed.

Henry W. Savage will have two compositions next season in the Hungrarian opera, "Seri." Following his method with "The Merry Widow" and others of his productions, Mr. Savage will intercalate the principal members of the "Seri" organization.

Paul Vitaphone's new play, "What Happened at 22," is to be produced early in August with Reginald Harlow and Carroll McCormack in the leading roles. It tells the story of a clever forger and is said to exhibit the "crook" from a new angle.

LILLIAN COLSON

LABOR AND OVE MIX TOGETHER IN DREAMLAND PLAY

Story of Gripping Intensity Will Be Presented for Two Days.

UNION WORKMEN STRIKE AGAINST CORPORATION

Young Lawyer, Favorable to Cause, Becomes Entangled With Men.

For Monday and Tuesday of next week the Dreamland Theater will present a photo-play gripping and full of interest from beginning to end. It concerns the contemplated struggles of a labor union against a large corporation, with a couple of love affairs mixed in. The story, in brief, is as follows:

Richard Milbank and Daniel Crosby, the federated iron, coal and transportation companies. This immense corporation employs thousands of workmen. Crosby dies and Milbank succeeds him as president. Milbank becomes president of the corporation while Reginald, the youngest son, is made a director.

Reginald is represented by James Thiedford, whom he makes vice-president. This leaves the management in the hands of young Reginald, who is a "clever" man of the warlike Taylor show, which played for one year in New York. For next week the Dreamland Theater will present "The East Side Story," a play which "declares" who attempts to redeem her scarlet past by a disinterested, honest attachment which meets with dire failure, the Lyceum players will be seen in an entirely new vehicle. Miss Irene Lorton will essay Laura Mirkos, a character which represents the type of woman of easy virtue who is sometimes seen in the foot lights and helps give the theater a bad name. Mr. Edward Hearn will be seen as Will Davidson, a "clever" man of the warlike Taylor show, which played for one year in New York. TRADE GENERALLY GOOD THROUGHOUT THE DOMINION CANADA

Believed That Suspension of Exports Will Not Long Continue.

BANKS REPORTED TO BE IN EXCELLENT SHAPE Gross Earnings of Railroads Show Decrease From Last Year.

New York, Aug. 8.—Dispatches to Dun's Review from branch offices of E. G. Dun and company in leading trade centers of the Dominion of Canada indicate that the excitement incident to the declaration of war by Great Britain has not yet been permitted to the exclusion of business.

Montreal reports that development has been checked by the war, and it is impossible at present to see how trade was affected. Exports have entirely ceased, but this is thought to be only temporary and a renewal of shipments to Great Britain is looked for in the near future. The banks are in good shape and prepared to extend ready assistance to their customers.

Business at Toronto was exceedingly quiet owing to the excitement caused by the war, and its effect on the money market. The future, however, is regarded with confidence, and a revival in trade is looked for shortly.

The feeling is conservative at Hamilton, and trade is more leisurely, but the markets are well supplied and the effect of the war has been very slight.

All mercantile lines in the far west and northwest are inclined to quietness, although the grain trade is about the only industry feeling the disturbance of the war to any extent.

Winnipeg reports that only the grain trade seems to be affected by the troubles in Europe, and the volume of business in most departments is not much below that of a year ago.

An optimistic feeling prevails at Regina, where several new industries have been recently started.

Edmonton reports conditions very favorable as owing to the excellent crop conditions conditions are not expected to move more freely. No improvement has appeared at Calgary, where the grain trade is about the only line in moderate volume.

Earnings of Canadian railroads reported to date for July show a decrease of 12.2 per cent. as compared with the earnings of the same roads for the corresponding time a year ago. Commercial failures in the Dominion of Canada this week numbered 57, as against 42 last week, and 31 the same week last year.

The City Dairy team defeated the Excelsior last evening 10 to 9 in a very one-sided game, and practically clinched the championship of B division. The E.C.D. team have a wonderful record this season, having lost but one game out of 18 played.

The Altas defeated the Red Sox last night in a 4½ innings game by the score of 7 to 4, and are now in line running with the Wholesalers for first place in A division senior league. The batteries in last evening's game were for the Altas, Grant and Thomas; for the Red Sox, McAllister and Forbes.

The Knights of Columbus were given their game by default from the Hustlers, as that team failed to show up.

Bid Enthusiast Farewell. Halifax, Aug. 8.—Among the cheers of thousands of people lining the wharves and houseboats, H.M.S. Essex steamed out of Halifax harbor at 6.10 last evening, her band playing "Rule Britannia," which the citizens sang as she slid down the stream. The cheers of the people could be heard even in Dartmouth across the harbor, where the residents immediately flocked to the waterfront, and their enthusiastic farewell re-echoed across the harbor. It was one of the never-to-be-forgotten scenes which has been witnessed locally since the war started. Ten Halifax men enlisted on the warship to fight for the empire.

Insurance Rate Cut. London, Aug. 8.—The war risks insurance office has reduced its rate on cargo from 5½ to 4½ per cent.

LABOR AND LOVE MIX TOGETHER IN DREAMLAND PLAY

Crosby house, Burgess accuses him of being in league with the house and succeeds in turning some of the men against him, still the more intelligent have faith in him. Louise Stobbe leaves of Reeling's attention to Grace Crosby and becomes enraged, but when she hears her father and Burgess plotting to destroy him, she turns to the counsel her better nature prompts her to give to his apartments and warn him.

While Louise is there Grace comes in (it is night) to tell him that she will marry him whether he stops the strike or not. She admits him to her room, leaving the two women alone. Louise accuses Grace of following Stedman for selfish reasons and dares her to call up her people and tell them that she is in his room.

Grace takes the phone and calls her brother to come to Stedman's room at her home. Matthew and Ned Milbank arrive and are ushered upstairs where the president of the brotherhood and the other men are waiting.

Grace arrives in another room. Stedman, to end the matter offers his resignation, but Grace comes forward and refuses to permit it. All parties being present a conference was held and explanations offered.

The strike was ended and Grace becomes Mrs. Stedman while the tempestuous Louise is watching with the terrible fury.

SOLDIERS DO NOT LOSE RIGHTS UNDER INSURANCE POLICIES

Thomas Hilliard, of Waterloo, Ontario, president and managing director of the Waterloo County Loan and Savings company, and father of Fred A. Hilliard, local manager of the Dominion Life, who is now in the city, states that those who are now volunteering for service under the British flag, and protected by their insurance policies. The war clause in the policies, he says, provides only that claims will not be paid if the insured takes service under a foreign standard.

He also declares that new policies insuring against war risks will be issued by Canadian insurance companies, but the rates have not yet been fixed.

READY RESPONSE TO PRINCE'S APPEAL FOR POOR RELIEF FUND

London, Aug. 8.—Although it was only opened yesterday morning, £1,125,000 had already been subscribed last night to the Prince of Wales fund for the relief of the poor during the war. The provincial cities are still to be heard from.

One of the first subscriptions was $50,000 from the prince's regiment, the First Life guards. Among others who contributed to the fund were George Cox, the manufacturer, $250,000; Lord Ashby $15,000; King George, Sir Ernest Cassel and Sir Hartley each $25,000.

UNITED STATES MAY SHIP GOODS WITHOUT BREAKING HER TREATY

(Capital League Wire) Washington, Aug. 8.—A great relief in commercial circles was experienced in Washington, New York and other eastern cities today, when it became known that the bureau of navigation officers, after conference with the heads of department of commerce had ruled that commerce might be shipped from the United States into Canada without in any way violating the neutrality of this country, provided no contraband of war be permitted to cross the border. Following this decision it is expected that purely commercial shipments to Canada will at once increase wonderfully in quantity.

FLEET OF ATLANTIC LINERS WILL LIKELY SAIL TODAY, QUEBEC

Montreal, Aug. 8.—It was stated that there will be a big departure of passenger vessels from here at daybreak today. What will happen to the seven Atlantic liners going out when they reach Quebec remains to be seen. In fact, that depends to a large extent upon news from the seat of war. Already there are seven at Quebec.

When the flotilla from Montreal reaches the citadel there will probably be the largest fleet of merchant vessels ever seen around there at one time. It is understood that the British government has agreed to permit that all the vessels would be permitted to proceed today.

PAT BURNS OFFERS $50,000 TO EQUIP THE FRONTIERSMEN

Calgary, Aug. 8.—Pat Burns, the cattle king of Canada, resident in Calgary, it is understood, has offered the sum of $50,000, his share in the defence of the Empire, to aid in equipping the Legion of Frontiersmen, which, 500 strong, has tendered its services to Ottawa. It is estimated that it will cost $300,000 to equip the legion, which will be composed solely of veterans.

Recruiting officers were besieged in Calgary today when it became known that militia was to be put on a war footing.

English Troops in France. (Capital League Wire) Paris, Aug. 8.—It is officially announced that English troops under the direction of French officers, are disembarking on French soil. The point of disembarkation is not revealed. This embarkation was made under the direction of French officers, who spoke English fluently and was witnessed by a crowd that cheered the Englishmen.

THRILLING STORY TOLD BY WITNESS OF LIEGE DEFENCE

Belgians Answer German Request for Passage by Blowing up Bridge.

WOMEN TAKE UP ARMS TO DEFEND THEIR CITY Dead and Wounded Bodies Float Down River When Defenders Guns Bark

(Capital League Wire) London, Aug. 8.—The only man who has not yet got back to London after witnessing the first attack of the Germans of Liege, is Benjamin Hallet, a member of a Belgian scenic firm, who reached here today after traveling forty-eight hours without food.

"There were many heart-rending scenes in the streets as the troops marched to meet the invaders," he said. "I heard one woman say, through her tears, 'It's my only son, and it will break my heart to have him killed, but I'll be satisfied if he kills three Germans first.'"

"Despite their valor and resolute-ness, they had no idea Liegeers would be able to make such a magnificent and wonderful defence against such an overwhelming force as the Germans brought."

"The Germans had their big guns far away across the river and just out of sight. A small detachment came with a white flag. It was General Von Emmich, the German commander, who came to demand the surrender of the city, saying he merely wanted free passage for his troops and would not hurt a soul but would be friendly with everybody and pay cash to the people for everything that was destroyed."

Bridge Blown Up. General Von Emmich had barely ridden back on the bridge over the river Meuse and was still in sight charging across the valley when there was a long roar, a cracking crash and the bridge had been blown up.

General Von Emmich was seen to turn on his horse and watch the cloud of dust which went up into the air, far above the cloud of smoke from the explosives.

"The next hour was, I think, the busiest I have ever seen. Women and children, weeping, were hurried away every possible kind of vehicle and many on foot, staggering along trying to run and hardly able to walk because they were carrying many bundles."

"The men and many women, too, were taking positions to which they were sent by the Germans. The soldiers were hurrying at the double to their positions."

"Then came an astonishing sight. The Germans were coming. From the one of the old disused fortresses, from almost anywhere in the city in fact, because Liege is on a hill, the German troops could be seen approaching."

Just as the first lines came in view, the guns of the artillery pointed some where far behind them started booming. The shells could be heard humming through the air. There were no aimed at the city but at the forts, which lie in crooked line quite some distance out.

Sappers Picked Off. Some of the shells went wide and in the earth kicking up a vicious epiteful. Some hit the forts, but buried themselves in the sand and outwards and sputtered out. The forts did not reply.

"The first rank of the German soldiers crossing the bridge were about two feet from the Belgian side, swinging with the bridge and had just broken from a quiet slow waddling march into a run when the Liege guns let go. The only part of the pontoon left was about fifty feet on the side where the Germans were, and the surface of the river was alive with German soldiers, struggling horribly to free themselves from the destruction and shattered pontoon, and swim to the side."

The same time Liege sharpshooters picked off one by one of about a dozen German sappers who had swum to the earth kicking up a vicious epiteful. Some hit the forts, but buried themselves in the sand and outwards and sputtered out. The forts did not reply.

"The first rank of the German soldiers crossing the bridge were about two feet from the Belgian side, swinging with the bridge and had just broken from a quiet slow waddling march into a run when the Liege guns let go. NEW LINE OPENS FAVORITE RESORT AT SYLVAN LAKE

Alberta Central Service to
Rocky Mountain House
Monday.

LARGE MILEAGE INCLUDED IN EDMONTON DIVISION

Short Line to St. Paul May Be Completed Late in Autumn
Via Sedgewick.

The new service to be established on the Alberta Central branch now being taken over by the C.P.R. affords another summer resort for Central Alberta which is due to become popular in the immediate future. Trains over the Alberta Central will run three times a week for the remainder of this season, leaving Red Deer at 12:30 and returning at 21:30 the same day on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays. This will let excursionists and summer resorters into Sylvan lake at 12:30, and give them until 10:30 or seven hours and 40 minutes at the resort. Sylvan lake has long been a favorite resort for Red Deer people, but the train service to be established Monday will be the first afforded and following this it will certainly jump into popularity. Superintendent J. A. MacGregor, who has lately been placed in charge of the Edmonton division recently established, and who is just getting his office staff installed in the C.P.R. depot building, leaves on Monday for the Alberta Central line to officially take the road over from the construction department. While the line is being built there will be approximately 550 miles of road in the Edmonton division including the C. and E. to Red Deer, parts of the Winkawin and Lacombe branches east nearly to the Saskatchewan boundary, and all branch and connecting lines north of the Lacombe branch in Alberta. Included in this later will be the Coronation to Bederick branch now being constructed and designed as a complement of the Soo short line to St. Paul and Minneapolis, which cut off will, in all probability, be completed this fall. Construction is now going on at the Battle River crossing, where a big bridge is nearing completion and when this is finished the steel will be quickly connected up, giving Edmonton a new road and new service to the south and east.

GINGER, COLOGNE, ETC., ARE BARRED IN KANSAS

Topeka, Kan., Aug. 8.—Jamaica ginger was placed under the ban in Kansas when the state Supreme Court held that it is intoxicating and that a druggist who sells it may be prosecuted for violation of the prohibitory law. The court also held that lemon and vanilla extracts, cologne, camphor and similar liquors, extracts and essences if they actually make a man drunk, are to be classed as intoxicating liquors.

TOWN HAS TOO MANY GOSSIPS TO NEED PAPER

Macou, Mo., Aug. 8.—College Meurd, the old school town in southwestern Macou County, after calm reflection among the citizens, has decided that a local newspaper would be of no vital importance in the community because of competition by the gossip at the village store and the sewing society.

It is estimated that 25,000,000 persons attend the 4000 moving picture theaters of England each week.
